KIEHL'S GRAND OPENING

What: Kiehl's celebrated the grand opening of its new Dallas store by hosting "A Family Day with the DMA," benefiting Two x Two for AIDS and Art. Using markers and paper provided by the Dallas Museum of Art, children created their own masterpiece inspired by Texas artist William Betts. Kiehl's president Chris Salgado presented a $25,000 check to Cindy Rachofsky, host of Two x Two for AIDS and Art.

When and where: June 29 in NorthPark Center
