DALLAS ROCK CITY

Guests came ready to rock and roll all night at First Look, the preview to the art auction gala 'Two by Two for AIDS and Art.' Partygoers flocked to the Rachofsky House dressed in their best rock-star-chic attire thanks to cool co-chairing couples Lisa and John Runyon and Christen and Derek Wilson. Guests gathered on the modern estate's back lawn as KISS tribute band MiniKISS, "the hottest, littlest band in the world" performed KISS covers, complete with pyrotechnics and trademark makeup. The bash, presented by Victory Park, allowed guests to sip cocktails and Champagne and savor cuisine from Nove Italiano and Kenichi, while bidding on the 130 art and luxury items. The night raised funds for amfAR and the Dallas Museum of Art. Rock on! —TONI EDWARDS
