

Art Rocks

I thought my first trip to the Rachofsky house would include elegantly dressed guests, polite banter, and a few members of the DSO playing chamber music. Um, how about lots of leather, hard-partying art patrons, and midgets singing Kiss? That's what attendees at the FIRST LOOK PREVIEW PARTY FOR TWO BY TWO FOR AIDS AND ART, presented by Victory Park, found as they pulled up to the valet at the Richard Meier-designed house. A stunning crowd joined chairmen Lisa and John Runyon and Christen and Derek Wilson for drinks, art, and MiniKiss, the aforementioned band.
