Two by Two for AIDS and Art

TWO'S COMPANY!

In its 11th year, the 'Two by Two for AIDS and Art' gala, co-chaired by Jan and Elizabeth Showers and held at The Rachofsky House, was as hot a ticket as ever. Maybe it was the headlining performance from Tony-Award-winning Cabaret star Alan Cumming. Or celeb guests like Harry Belafonte and Kenneth Cole. And a who's-who roster of artists didn't hurt either. The evening's artist honoree, Peter Doig, had a good night, his work meeting with major bids. All told, a cool $4 million was raised for amfAR, The Foundation for AIDS Research and the Dallas Museum of Art. —Rachel Watkins
